MFDS holds 2022 food safety management seminar – Invitation of food sanitary cooperation ODA among Asian countries –

□ From 7 to 10 November, 2022, Korea's Ministry of Food and Drug Safety (MFDS, Minister Yu-Kyoung Oh) hosts the 2022 Korea-Asian sanitation and cooperation seminar on safety governance of agricultural-livestock and fishery products, inviting 19 experts from 10 Asian countries.

* Participating Countries: Cambodia, Indonesia, Kyrgyzstan, Malaysia, Mongolia, Philippines, Sri Lanka, Thailand, Turkmenistan, Vietnam

- This seminar is designed to enhance safety management of agricultural-livestock and fishery products in Asia and tighten partnership in food safety between Korea and Asian countries. The seminar will be attended by 19 experts of 10 countries.
- The seminar includes ▲ introduction of Korea's food safety regulations ▲ field trips to food production establishments and agricultural-livestock and fishery products safety management establishment ▲ presentation about food safety policy of their countries.

- Lectures on safety regulation of Korea food and agricultural-livestock and fishery products will showcase the excellence of Korea's food safety management system. And participants will have an opportunity to experience the system in person through field trips.

* Pre-seminar learning before entrance and field trip after entrance will be conducted.

- Also, participants who take on food safety do presentation about their country's food safety policy to understand each other. It will provide information and chances to Korean food companies which try to export food to Asian countries.

○ In particular, this seminar will offer the venue for vibrant exchanges of their opinions through offline meetings instead of monotonous web seminar during COVID-19 pandemic.

□ MFDS expects that this seminar will contribute to promoting excellence of Korea's food safety management and cooperation among Asian countries. It is also anticipated to serve for enhancing safety management capability for agricultural-livestock and fishery products of developing countries in Asia. The ministry will strive to upgrade the image of Korea's food safety and to facilitate food export of domestic companies.
